

Rewrites of Sonic #26

Story 1: Frostbite (Formerly "Way WAY Past Cool") Fan fiction by Danny Wheeler

It was a nice warm summer day in the Mobius of the Sky. Sonic and Sally were taking a swim in the palace swimming pool in Mobotropolis. Suddenly, a freak snowstorm blew in. Sonic and Sally got out of the pool shivering! The Queen came and, after putting some coats on the two, told them that Eggman had created an Ice Storm Machine in the Mobius of Darkness. She added that Eggman also sent five Ice Super Badniks to attack! Sonic and Sally got their friends together to attack!

The First Ice Super Badnik was the Sleet Wolf, with a Sleet Spray. Sally did a kick on it, freeing Guntiver, a wolf. Tails and Bunnie took on the Killer Bear, whose power was the Boulder Crush. They defeated it and freed the Polar Bear named Augustus. Antoine and Elias fought the Napalm Seal and its Bomb Balloons, freeing Sealia, a French seal girl. Rotor freed Erma the Ermine from her Icicle Ermine form, all the while avoiding its Icicle Darts. Sonic took on the Blizzard Penguin and its Freeze Breath. The reward for defeating it was freeing Flip the Penguin.

Once all five were freed, Sonic and friends entered the Mobius of Darkness and went to destroy the Ice Storm Machine. But, like clockwork, Metal Sonic appeared to intercept them! Sally and Tails threw snowballs to buy Sonic some time, while he attacked the robot with his spins. Soon, Metal retreated, and Sonic did a spin to destroy the ice machine. Summer returned to the Mobius of the Sky, and Sonic and his friends returned there to enjoy the warm climate!

Story 2: The Hidden Fortress (Formerly "Fortified") Fan fiction by Danny Wheeler

During a hike in the mountains, Sonic and his friends soon discovered an ancient fortress. Within it was a mysterious giant robot-like weapon. But Metal Sonic, wearing a cloaking device, spied on them and reported the findings to Eggman. Eggman then ordered Metal to attack. Metal then dropped his cloaking field and attacked!

Bunnie, who was normal at the time, got into the giant robot suit and used her magic to activate it! Soon, the Freedom Fighters had a weapon to fight Metal! Metal made some good hits on Bunnie too, but in the end, she succeeded in stopping Metal, and he retreated for maintenance!
